

HOLD YER HORSES

“Those who consider themselves religious and yet do not keep a tight rein on their tongues deceive themselves, and their religion is worthless.”
James 1:26

LYRICS

Cowboys, hold yer horses, hold yer tongue.
Think before those words are slung.
Sticks and stones can break my bones, but words can hurt forever.
So say it smart, have a heart,
Use yer words fer good.
WHHHOOOOAAA COWBOYS!

REFLECTION

- Look up the definition of bridle. How can it be a noun? How can it be a verb?
- Why might we put a bridle on a horse?
- Why might the Lord instruct us to “bridle our tongue?”
- In what ways might both a horse and our tongues need to be, “...brought under control?”
- How might self-control be a good idea when it comes to our words?
