LYRICS

CHORUS

When you belong to the Longs
then you will sing our songs,
and you'll be strong in our throng,
We can help you get along.
Lift you up, up, up
when life is going wrong.
We'll make you feel like old King Kong.

When you belong to the Longs
then you will sing our songs,
and we'll be strong in our throng,
help each other get along.
We always hate to say "so long,"
cause everybody should belong.

VERSE 1

We all have trouble on the inside and out.
Some troubles are hidden - some give a shout!!!!
Even though I snort when I laugh,
and though my cute little bro' needs a bath!
It's stronger than right, it's stronger than wrong,
when we all belong.

CHORUS

When you belong to the Longs
then you will sing our songs,
and you'll be strong in our throng,
We can help you get along.
Lift you up, up, up
when life is going wrong.
We'll make you feel like old King Kong.

When you belong to the Longs
then you will sing our songs,
and we'll be strong in our throng,
help each other get along.
We always hate to say "so long,"
cause everybody should belong.

VERSE 2

We all have traits that we wish we could fix.
My voice is annoying, my legs are like sticks.
Though some people seem perfect at first,
hurts on the inside are hurts that hurt worse.
We all feel more right, we all feel more strong
when we all belong.

CHORUS & TAG

When you belong to the Longs
then you will sing our songs,
and you'll be strong in our throng,
We can help you get along.
Lift you up, up, up
when life is going wrong.
We'll make you feel like old King Kong.

When you belong to the Longs
then you will sing our songs,
and we'll be strong in our throng,
help each other get along.
We always hate to say "so long,"
cause everybody should
if everybody could,
everybody should belong.
