

WILL I FIND IT BOWS

LYRICS

VERSE

When I lay my head in bed each night wondering is there one thing I got right?
Cause I keep on messing up in spite of what I know is best.
Like I know what's good and right and true,
and the things I should and shouldn't do.
So you'd think by now I'd get a clue
but still I fail the test.

PRECHORUS

The power is not inside me
to do it on my own.
I need a power to guide me,
I can't do it all alone.

CHORUS

Will I find it in a romance like they promise in a song?
Will I find it in a friendship
if I search my whole life long?
I can look around, but it's not found in anything I see.
It's only in the power of the one who died for me.
