LYRICS

NICKI

I tell ya, she's told me, a million times before:
please don't touch the bike in the garage beside the door of the car beside the wall cause things could fall, now don't ignore me.

Please don't touch the bike in the garage,
beside the door,
door of the car,
car by the wall,
cause stuff could fall,
and then you'll bawl,
and have to crawl,
and tell us all,
they'll be a squall,
and then a brawl

CARLY

(interrupting, over brawl)
-Ok, that's all. Ok I get it.

NICKI

And no more mall.
